SECTION 3. WAITING PERIOD

A waiting period of 30 days applies to illnesses from policy inception, except in cases of emergency hospitalization resulting directly from an accidental injury.

Pre-existing diseases and medical conditions declared at the time of proposal shall be covered only after an initial waiting period of 36 continuous months of uninterrupted coverage under this policy.

SECTION 4. DEDUCTIBLE AND COST SHARING

A mandatory aggregate deductible of Rs. 5,00,0 applies before any claim is eligible for disbursement by the insurer.

No co-payment is mandated for treatment taken across network hospitals located in Tier 1 or Tier 2 cities.

SECTION 5. MAJOR POLICY EXCLUSIONS

The company shall not be liable to make any claim payment under this policy in respect of any expenses incurred by the insured for:

- Cosmetic procedures: Cosmetic, aesthetic or plastic surgery treatments, including procedures aimed at improving appearance or gender affirmation.
- Infertility treatment: Infertility, sub-fertility, assisted reproductive technology (ART), IVF procedures, or gestational surrogacy.
- Non-medical expenses: Non-medical expenses, personal comfort items, dietary supplements, and vitamins without a medical prescription.
- Hazardous activities: Treatment arising from intentional self-inflicted injuries, suicide attempts, or participation in hazardous and extreme sporting activities.

SECTION 6. CLAIM CONDITIONS AND NOTICE PROCEDURE

For planned hospitalization, written intimation must be submitted to the insurer at least 48 hours prior to hospital admission.

For emergency admissions, notice must be provided within 24 hours of hospital admission to qualify for cashless processing.

All original bills, receipts, discharge summaries, and diagnostic reports must be lodged within 15 days following hospital discharge.

SECTION 7. IMPORTANT LIMITATIONS

Cataract surgery claims are subject to a sub-limit of Rs. 25,000 per eye.

Domiciliary treatment is permitted only when hospital beds are strictly unavailable, up to a maximum limit of Rs. 50,000.
